

THE ART OF TEA

Celebrates the Year of the Dog

Chinese New Year has a far-reaching history of over 3,800 years.

The origins of the festival can be traced back to the worshipping activities in China's ancient agrarian society. The date for the ceremony wasn't fixed till the Han Dynasty in 202 BC when Emperor Wudi commanded the use of the lunar calendar.

The red envelope given out at the New Year symbolizes good luck and the fiery crimson color is meant to ward off evil. Originally the gift consisted of coins bound together by a red string. Eventually, with the advent of the printing press, it became the red envelope we know today. Please take with you our red envelope with Green Tea for health and Imperial Oolong for good fortune.
